About Kbh-Kollegier.dk

Kbh-Kollegier.dk is essentially the ultimate dormitory guide for Copenhagen and the surrounding area. The website collects 295 dormitories in one place, making the dormitory search manageable. A search system has made it easy to find the dormitories that match your housing needs, and especially to find the dormitories you are eligible to apply for based on your educational direction. Kbh-Kollegier.dk collaborates with several dormitories, where we, for example, display available dormitory rooms and application deadlines in cooperation with these, but Kbh-Kollegier.dk does not handle the actual allocation of dormitory rooms. So, you cannot apply for a dormitory room through Kbh-Kollegier.dk. Instead, we function as a dormitory guide, giving you as a student the best prerequisites for finding a dormitory room in a complicated market, by informing you about everything from application possibilities to available dormitory rooms, application deadlines, application processes, and where you should apply.

When we write about available rooms/housing, we refer to a site away from Kbh-Kollegier.dk. At Kbh-Kollegier.dk, we collect all the available dormitory rooms and application deadlines from the internet. We do this to give you the best overview so you can save time. We link to the application site where you can find more information and apply directly to the dormitory. We do not manage dormitory rooms or their rental.

Definition of a Dormitory

Dormitories were originally a community of students living side by side, sharing common facilities with each other. This could be shared bathrooms, kitchens, lounges, living rooms, etc. Many dormitories still resemble the original dormitory form, but there are and will be more dormitories where residents have their own bathroom, kitchen, etc. Since many dormitory rooms have their own bathroom and kitchenette, they could also be categorized as "student housing." Conversely, there are also many student housings that could just as well be categorized as "dormitory" because they have common facilities that invite an active social life among its residents. Therefore, these student housings function on par with dormitories in Copenhagen. There are also many youth housings that are only reserved for students, and which could also be characterized as a dormitory based on the above definition. The original definitions of dormitories, student housing, and youth housing are now merging. At Kbh-Kollegier.dk, we include housing reserved for students, regardless of whether the builder has control over the definitions of a dormitory or student housing. The fact is, most are one and the same today – namely, a collegiate community for students. By accepting our subscription terms, you accept our equating of the term student housing, youth housing, and dormitories.

Right of Withdrawal

Your subscription purchase is subject to the statutory right of withdrawal of 14 days. However, the right of withdrawal only applies if you have not used the product.

We will refund the amount to you without undue delay and no later than 14 days from the day we received the notice that you wish to withdraw from the agreement. We will return the money using the same payment method you used for the purchase unless we have agreed otherwise.
